

MAIN STREET MYTHOLOGY

Press Kit

INTRO

Urban life told through myths of a modern pantheon.

WHAT IS MAIN STREET MYTHOLOGY?

Main Street Mythology is an urban-fantasy audio drama that explores city life through gods based on modern objects like streetlights, the internet, or skyscrapers. Each episode contains several legends read by one of three narrators. The stories are accompanied by music from La Troienne and visuals from Trent Stradley.

This series includes 5 full episodes that range between 10 - 30 minutes

WILL I LIKE MAIN STREET MYTHOLOGY?

The show has a relaxing tone with tongue-in-cheek legends, reminiscent of campfire tall tales or bedtime stories. Themes include coming of age, empowerment, expression, pride, family, humans vs. nature, love, and grief.

If you enjoy greek mythology, folklore, Thor, Hellboy, Sandman, or even architecture and urban development, then you might enjoy Main Street Mythology.

IS MAIN STREET MYTHOLOGY FOR KIDS?

Main Street Mythology maintains a Clean rating and was intentionally created for audiences of all ages. However, there are adult themes such as death and family conflicts.

Parents may wish to listen to the first episode to get a feel for whether the material is appropriate for their children.

TRIGGER WARNINGS

Fantasy violence is present in the series, however, there is no detailed descriptions of the violence.

Though the show was inspired by greek mythology, there is no mentions of rape, bestiality, abductions, or torture.

RELEASE SCHEDULE

New episodes release weekly every Thursday from May 2nd to May 30th,

Full transcripts are available on the Newton's Dark Room website following each episode release.

DOWNLOAD & SUBSCRIBE

The show will be released on the Newton's Dark Room Presents podcast feed. You can find this feed on Apple Podcasts, Spotify, Stitcher, Google Play, and most other podcast platforms.

ONLINE & SOCIAL

Website: <https://newtonsdarkroom.com>

Email: curator@newtonsdarkroom.com

Patreon: <https://www.patreon.com/newtonsdarkroom>

Twitter: @newtonsdarkroom

Instagram: @newtonsdarkroom

Facebook: <https://facebook.com/newtonsdarkroom>

ABOUT THE CREATOR

Talon Stradley is a writer, musician, and audio producer based out of Long Beach, California.

He is currently finishing up his time as a student at Orange Coast College where he has earned degrees in theater, psychology, and film. Talon has plans to transfer to Cal State Dominguez Hills to pursue a career in audio engineering.

An active member of the Long Beach music scene, Talon has performed under Newton's Dark Room in many venues across the city. He has even organized his own shows performing to 40+ people in his own backyard.

Talon produces The Whole Way Through for local public radio station, KLBP. On this show, he highlights the albums of local musicians and dives deep into their creative process.

When he isn't working on podcasts, Talon likes to play Dungeons and Dragons, read independent comics, and explore the wonderful world of fonts.

You can learn more about Talon by following him on Instagram @TalonHasNoIdea